Terms of Trading

The Parties:

The 'Seller' Glassdrummond Imports & Exports Ltd (GIE)

The 'Buyer' – The person or company purchasing any goods from the seller

Retention of Title

Retention of title of all goods supplied by GIE shall remain with GIE until all items have been paid for in full. Title: Until you pay all debts you may owe us: All goods supplied by us remain the property of GIE. They must be stored so they are clearly identifiable as property of GIE. You must insure (against risks for which any prudent owner would insure them) and hold the policy on trust for them. You may use these goods and sell them in the ordinary running of your business but not if you become insolvent or we revoke that right (by informing you in writing). You must inform us (in writing) immediately if you become insolvent, your rights to use and sell GIE goods ends and you must allow us to remove the goods. We have your permission to enter any premises where the goods may be stored at any time, to inspect them, and after your right to use them has ended to remove them. Despite our retention of title to the goods, we have the right to take legal proceedings to recover the price of the goods supplied should you not pay us by the invoice due date.

Credit Terms

GIE operates on a strict proforma basis with all accounts. Credit can be applied for on request but there is no guarantee credit will be granted. If the credit application is approved, it will be set for a designated Terms of 7 Days Net or 30 Days Net. Should the credit terms be broken, GIE reserve the right to put the account on hold and revoke the agreed credit terms and revert the account to proforma.

Billing and Statements

GIE generate all invoices and statements electronically and are all delivered by email.

Printed hard copy invoices and statements are available on request but will incur a small administration & postal fee.

To avoid this fee please relate the relevant email address you wish to receive your invoices and statements to our accounts department.

Claims

Damaged/Faulty Items: Notice of faulty goods or claims for damages must be satisfied in writing within three days after acceptance of delivery.

If you need to report a fault to GIE, please take photos of the problem/ issue and record the batch number of the item as this will be needed to log the complaint. No replacements will be provided without photos of the issue.

Please Note GIE will not accept any items back that is not securely packaged in the original packaging.

Under no circumstances should a retailer hold back on any outstanding account payments required by GIE. All account that exceed normal credit terms will immediately be placed on hold and will be reverted to proforma terms.
